

Terms & Conditions

Guest Responsibilities

- The captain's decision on all matters of safety at sea is final, and all guests agree to adhere to and comply with instructions from the captain.
- All guests are expected to listen carefully and understand the comprehensive safety briefing. There is an opportunity for everyone to ask questions if something is not understood before departure.
- Children are always to be under adult supervision.
- Smoking or vaping is strictly prohibited inside the boat but is allowed on the designated area on the stern of the catamaran. Ashtrays must be used for cigarette ends. Smoking or vaping guests are expected to respect non-smokers.
- No litter of any description is to be discarded into the sea.
- Nothing must be discarded into the toilets.
- Please consume alcohol responsibly.
- Guests are responsible for all personal possessions taken onboard, and we take no responsibility for any loss or damage.
- Guests must advise us of any medical conditions, allergies or disabilities prior to making a booking.
- Guests are expected to adhere to the designated time and location for pick-up. In the event of tardiness or incorrect placement, the company assumes no responsibility and clients are required to arrange their own transfer to the Med2 Catamaran.
- Guests making their own way should arrive at least 15 min before the cruise departure time.

Disclaimer

- The route of the cruises is weather dependent and may be subject to change for the safety and comfort of our guests.
- The Vessels are not suitable for people with disabilities.
- Whilst we take all reasonable care and precautions to ensure the safety of all guests, accidents can unfortunately occur. We provide you with the best information, safety equipment and care always, however, this is not and never can be a substitute for enquiry by you. Sailing is considered an adventure-based activity which can be hazardous. There is always the possibility of personal injury or medical emergency. Please be assured our professional skippers and crew are trained and certified First Aid officers and we carry a full medical kit onboard.
- It is essential guests are aware of risks and adhere to rules and regulations for their own safety. Guests must take individual responsibility for understanding all given information and instruction, accepting and assuming all risk of damage, injury or medical emergency which may result.
- We recommend all guests purchase their own insurance to cover medical emergencies.
- It is the passenger's responsibility to assert whether he/she is physically fit to ride on a boat and will not hold Interyachting Ltd / Medcruisescy or their employees, agents or other associated personnel, responsible if he/she is injured as a result of ANY problems (medical, negligent, accidental or otherwise) which occur while chartering the boat or otherwise participating in the trip. It is the passenger's responsibility and duty to exercise reasonable care for his/her own safety. Passengers must fully understand that the vessel has limited medical facilities and that in the event of illness or injury, appropriate care must be summoned by radio and treatment will be delayed until they can be transported to a proper medical facility. Reasonable measures will be taken for immediate medical assistance.
- Due to the nature of maritime excursions, wave splashes may occur at any time during the cruise, particularly on the front deck (net area). Passengers acknowledge and accept that they may get wet as a result of normal sea conditions. All guests are advised to take adequate precautions to safeguard personal belongings, valuables, and electronic devices. MedCruises.cy shall not be held liable for any damage, loss, or malfunction of personal items resulting from exposure to water, sea spray, or related conditions.
- We accept no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or injury.
- When making your booking, you will be asked to confirm you have read all the above and fully understand and accept sailing on board any of Interyachting's Ltd / Medcruisescy yachts/boats is entirely at your own risk and you accept these terms and conditions.
